You should purchase / order as many of your required books as possible through Water Street Books so that the standard book charge process can take place. After you have purchased/ordered them, you will submit this form to the office.

List the TITLES of these books below:

If Water Street Books IS NOT ABLE to obtain the books you require, please list the TITLE and price of books you purchased elsewhere below. You must attach the receipt(s) for the purchase of these books. When approved, the book grant will be applied to your Williams student account and you will contact the Bursar's Office to request your refund.

I affirm that purchase of these books is required for the successful completion of my independent study / thesis course.
